3. Suggested Activities

As you read the book notice how Henry interacts with "The Great Blue Heron." Henry treats him with respect, is polite, and asks for help. "The Great Blue Heron" generously helps Henry by giving him tips to become a better hunter. Ask your students how they can use these qualities when interacting with others.

SC Social Study Standard Correlations:

K.CG.3 Establish and practice classroom rules and procedures for listening and responding appropriately to others. This indicator was developed to encourage inquiry into identifying civic dispositions (e.g., compassion, cooperation, empathy, honesty, and respect). Further, inquiry promotes the discussion of rules already in place, the creation of rules, and habits needed for civil discourse.
