Champagne Garden Tour 4:30 p.m.

Party & Silent Auction 5 to 8 p.m.

Cocktails & Camellias is the annual fundraiser for Coastal Discovery Museum on Hilton Head Island. This signature winter garden party is unlike any other fundraiser.

Nestled on 70 breathtaking acres, known locally as Honey Horn, the Coastal Discovery Museum is more than a destination – it's a vibrant celebration of the Lowcountry's natural beauty, rich history, and cultural heritage.

We ask that you consider donating an auction item or joining in as a sponsor. Coastal Discovery Museum needs your support.

The Coastal Discovery Museum at Honey Horn is a Smithsonian affiliate. We welcome more than 130,000 visitors annually, including school children, residents, and travelers, offering immersive experiences that educate and inspire. There is no admission fee to the Museum and a lot of funds are required to keep up the property.

Inspiring people for 40 years

Since 1985, the Museum has been a beacon of conservation, education, and community engagement. Your donation and support helps us preserve this legacy and expand our year-round programs in:

- Environmental conservation
- Historical preservation
- Arts and cultural education
- Youth and school outreach

Why Support the Coastal Discovery Museum?

Every step on this land tells a story. Your support ensures those stories continue to be shared for generations to come.
